President Knoop introduced our very own Doctor Richard Wing, Senior Minister at First Community Church. After 23 years at the church, we were saddened to learn that Dr. Wing will be resigning soon from Rotary as he sells his home and retires to a condominium in Scottsdale, Arizona. Once the house sells he should be relocated sometime in April or May. Thank you Dr. Wing for your many years of service and touching our lives in UA Rotary.

Dr. Wing shared his message, "A guide for the New Year: Finds ways to pause while living in the midst of acceleration." Dr. Wing shared many messages but the two most important words for the day were slowness and kindness. Our world and lives are happening fast. We all need to negotiate the speed of things coming at us. Moments of slowness are needed for calm still waters. His message received from many years of learning from others, including Dick Wood is to relentlessly eliminate hurry from your life.

The second gift offered by Dr. Wing is kindness. Kindness does not mean someone must sacrifice conviction. If we fail in kindness to the loving stranger we fail. One book recommended was Strangers in Their Own Land by Arlie Russell Hochschild.

The Meeting

President Chip Knop presided over the meeting and Reverend Richard Wing offered the Invocation and led us in the Pledge of Allegiance.

There were no guests or visiting Rotarians.

Chip Knop made several announcements:

Charter member Richard Weatherby pass away recently.

It is necessary to raise the price of lunch beginning January by one dollar. The price will now be reflected on your bill as $16. By comparison, Kiwanis charges $18.50 to meet at the Athletic Club.

First Thursday will be held at Hadley's on 4th Street on January 19.

There is a need for assistance in feeding the homeless at YWCA on Wednesday night (January 4) beginning around 5:30-8:00 p.m.

Ned Clark conducted harassment with the proceeds benefitting Polio Plus.

The following were recognized for their Paul Harris contributions:

Ned Clark

Dave Dewey

Notes and Announcements

Linda Cummins announced that the next Roundtable is next week at 10:30, likely in the Scioto Room. The speaker will Shirley Brooks-Jones who was on a passenger jet bound for the U.S when it was diverted to Gander, Newfoundland as a result of the September 11, 2001 closed U.S airspace. She talks about her experience spending 6 days waiting to return home.

Steve Sandbo announced that he is once again a grandfather. Congrats Gramps!
