Peggy Concilla was the master of ceremonies for the Northwest Community Volunteers Award (fka Northwest Women of the Year). In the past 43 years, UA Rotary has recognized over 200 individuals for their volunteer efforts and positive impact on the community. This year's honorees each received a $500 honorarium for a charity of choice:

JANE SOTAK, INTRODUCED BY LINDA CUMMINS:

Jane was nominated by Katie Kiene from the James Cancer Hospital. Katie said "Jane has been a volunteer for 25 years with almost 5,000 volunteer hours. Volunteer service is truly her calling. She arrives each week filled with compassion, empathy and energy to assist patients, families and staff." She is active with St. Andrew Catholic Church as a weekly volunteer at the St. Vincent de Paul Clothing Center, member of the Women's Club and a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, serving as Treasurer for 12 years. She is also very active with the Alpha Chi Omega National Sorority. Jane chose the St. Vincent de Paul Clothing Center as recipient of her honorarium.

BETTY O'NEILL, INTRODUCED BY TRACY HARBOLD:

Betty was nominated by Jeannie Schoedinger who said that "Everyone who knows Betty knows that she is devoted and passionate about giving of herself – and anyone that visits her must leave with something – most often a home baked item." She has been a member of TWIG (Together with Important Goals) at Nationwide Children's Hospital for over 50 years spending hours baking and crafting for the TWIG fundraising bazaar. Betty is also a very active member at First Community Church, volunteering for many projects, events and missions. A few years back the church even named the Election Day Bake Sale after her – and according to Jeannie – no member has anything named after them. Betty chose the Salvation Army and the American Red Cross as recipients of her honorarium.

MARGARET SHORE, INTRODUCED BY CHRIS TAYLOR:

Margaret was nominated by Rebecca Wolfe. Rebecca described Margaret, who has been a volunteer at the Tri-Village Trading Post for over 40 years, as "a marvel and a positive influence to all who know her. At 98 years old, she shows up two times a week and works for 6 ½ hours each day...we can't get her to sit down except to eat a little lunch." Margaret chose the Tri-Village Trading Post and the Heart to Heart Food Pantry as recipients of her honorarium.
