Brad Frick introduced and moderated the program, which was an opportunity to hear from all of the following five candidates for this November's election for UA City Council.

Carolyn Casper, a one-term incumbent, has lived in UA for more than 60 years. She has experience in public auditing, legislative monitoring, and social services. She has been a board member of Leadership UA, has been involved with two revisions of the UA Master Plan, has served as a board member of the UAHS Alumni Association, has twice served on the UA Schools Strategic Planning Committee Member, has served on the Leadership Board of the Stand Project, has worked on local school levies and issues for over 30 years, and is a member of First Community Church. She has three daughters.

Michaela Burris has spent most of her career in the public sector including the U.S. Senate, Ohio Senate, and Ohio House of Representatives. She spent several years with Small Business Majority, a nonprofit organization advocating for public policy solutions to help small businesses. She is a lifelong Ohio resident and native of Northeast Ohio who studied at Ohio University and Capital University Law School, and she was raised by a single mother who immigrated from Germany. Her community involvement has included being an officer, director and member of Leadership UA, a member of Equal UA, a member of the Friends of the UA Public Library, and a fellow of the Ohio State Bar Foundation. She was a varsity swimmer and diver in college. She lives with her husband Patrick and two dogs.

Angela Lanctot was raised in UA, attending Windermere Elementary, Hastings Middle School and UA High School. She graduated from Grove City College in Pennsylvania. Angela attained her law degree from Capital University Law School and became licensed to practice law in Ohio and Florida. She practices law at Kegler Brown Hill + Ritter. She has served as President of Kitchen Kapers, a UA organization dedicated to raising money to support services for cancer patients at OhioHealth Riverside Methodist Hospital. She is active with the Greensview Elementary PTO and BEARS Preschool. She speaks Spanish and has done medical missions to Honduras. Her husband, Clay, is a commercial banker with Bank of America and they have two children, Daphne (11) attending Hastings Middle School and Joel (8) who is in second grade at Greensview Elementary.

UA CITY COUNCIL CANDIDATE FORUM

John Kulewicz has lived in UA with his wife Maryline 32 years ago. John is a graduate of The Ohio State University, and Yale Law School. After law school, John was a law clerk to Judge Gilbert S. Merritt of the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. He started as an associate at Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease in 1981. John has been a partner at the firm since 1987. He specializes in litigation. John has served as board president of the Columbus Zoo and Catholic Social Services, president of the Federal Bar Association (Columbus chapter), as an officer of the Ohio Historical Society board and as a member of the Ohio Bicentennial Commission, and as a volunteer for many other community organizations. John is a member of St. Agatha Parish. He is a devoted swimmer, and participates in swimming challenges all over the world. John and Maryline have two adult children, Adam and Abigail, who they raised in Upper Arlington.

Brendan King, a one-term incumbent, is a lifelong resident of UA and a UA High School graduate. His father served as UA City Manager. Brendan is now an attorney in private practice in UA. He has served on the UA Parks and Recreation Advisory Board, and serves on the Board of the Hilltop Preschool. He is also currently the president of the UA Historical Society. He is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and Capital Law School. Brendan's wife Kelly (Harper) King is a teacher at UA High School. They have three children: William (13), Elizabeth (11) and Annie (9) who attend Tremont Elementary and Jones Middle School.

Notes and Announcements

October is "Free Guest Month" at UA Rotary. You may bring up to two free guests during the month of October! Ask someone who might be a potential Rotarian to join you. They can even have seconds (but the deal is off after they become members).

Jim McGovern announced the next Senior Service Day on Nov. 2. Join fellow Rotarians along with UAHS, Jones & Hastings Interact students to help UA senior citizens with yard cleanup. Please bring rakes, blowers, weed trimmers, brooms, edgers, gloves, etc. The day starts with a meeting at the UA Senior Center at 8:30 AM and going out in groups of 6-8 to pre-assigned houses. This is a great opportunity to invite a guest, spouse, or an older child to be a part of this service activity. Contact Jim McGovern for additional information at jamesmmcgovern@yahoo.com.

Ted Foster announced the West Broad St. Elementary/Barrington Elementary Partnership Kickoff Cookout, on October 25 from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm at West Broad Street Elementary School.

Barri Jones provided a reminder of the opportunity to join fellow Rotarians and their families in support of Love the 614's "Feed My Starving Children Mobile Pack" on October 12 @ 9:00 am - 11:00 pm. UA Rotary has reserved ten spots in this year's meal packing at OSU Don Scott Airport. We will be working with other members of the community to help pack 500,000 meals with 2500 volunteers, across six two-hour packing shifts. These meals will be delivered to children around the world who are suffering from malnourishment. If you are interested in being part of this important endeavor, please send an email to Chip Knoop at chipknoop@gmail.com.

Dave Dewey reminded us that October 24th is World Polio Awareness Day and to recognize this and raise funds for PolioPlus, our club will hold a fundraising social event on Thursday, October 24th from 5 - 7 PM at High Bank Distillery Company, 1051 Goodale Blvd. The cost is $5 with all proceeds going to PolioPlus.

Dave also gave us the sad news that former member John Christie has passed away.

Herb announced that the ribbon-cutting for the sheds that the Club built at Homeless Families Foundation will take place at 5:00 pm on Oct. 16 at Homeless Families Foundation (33 North Grubb St. 43215). Rotary will be serving ice cream treats to the children there, and volunteers are needed.
